

IDEAL COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES (A)

(AP Govt. Aided, Autonomous & NAAC-B)

Dr. P.V.N.RAJU VIDYAPRANGANAM

Samalkota Road, KAKINADA

Two day Training Program on “Capacity building for Teachers”

On 15-03-2019 and 16-03-2019

Jyothi Prajwalana:

Sri G.V.Krishnamraju, Senior Member Governing Body, Ideal College of Arts & Sciences, Kakinada, Dr. P.Chiranjeevini Kumari, Secretary and correspondent, Ideal College of Arts & Sciences, Kakinada, Prof. P.Suresh Varma, Rector & CDC, Adikavinannaya University, Rajamahendravaram, started the training by lighting the Lamp.

Inaugural Session, Sri G.V.Krishnamraju, Senior Member Governing Body, Ideal College of Arts & Sciences, Kakinada, presided over the function. He suggested participants and faculty members of the institution to share their views on latest trends in teaching with the resource persons.

Guest of honor, Dr. P.Chiranjeevini Kumari, Secretary and correspondent, Ideal College of Arts & Sciences, Kakinada, spoke on this program. She arranges this program for giving exposure to the faculty members for sharing innovative things with the external institutions. As a good teacher she gave a message to the faculty members that “teachers has to building up their capacity” and she advised faculty members to acquire knowledge through this training program.

Key Note Adress:

Prof. P.Suresh Varma, Rector & CDC, Adikavinannaya University, Rajamahendravaram, spoke on the topic: Capacity building for teachers. In his speech he explained various methodologies of teaching in all the past generations. He gave a statement that teacher is a role model for student and Teacher should always learn latest technologies for classroom teaching. He advised participants to improve teaching-learning and evaluation methodologies.

Session-I:

DrP.Rajashekar, Asst.Professor in Psychology, AdikaviNannaya university, Rajamahendravaram, spoke on various Innovative teaching and research methods. He recollected the goals of a teacher. He explained various teaching methods like gamification, simulation technology, computer grading, flipped class rooms, design thinking, case studies etc. with a power point presentation. Finally he advised participants to improve creative thinking towards teaching.

Session-II:

DrTalari Vasu, Asst.Professor, Department of Telugu, AdikaviNannaya University, Rajamahendravaram, spoke on “భోధనాభిరుచి-అనుభూతి”. In his speech he told that making structure for every lesson which we are going to teach in the class room is very important. He advised participants to teach lessons with practical examples and treat students like our own children. Finally he gave a statement that Teacher profession is a very friendly relationship.

Session-III:

Dr.N.UdayaBhaskar, Asst. Professor, Department of Management studies, AdikaviNannaya University, Rajamahendravaram. He spoke on “Education as enterprise”. He advised participants to make grouping of students in the class room and give assignments. In his speech he told various types of learners and various methods for teaching for them. He conveyed that the class room management, class room language, modern teaching techniques, activity based learning etc.. are very important in teaching and continuous professional development, build professional portfolio, affective teaching pedagogy can improve a teacher profession.

Session-IV:

Dr.N.S.Raghavendra, Asst. Professor, Department of English, AdikaviNannaya University, Rajamahendravaram. He spoke on the “Role of communication in professional development” in his speech he spoke about knowledge generation, communication types, misconceptions about teaching language skills and teaching self evaluation peer teaching etc. He conveyed that good communication, good body language, questions and responses are play important role in the class room for a teacher.

Session-V:

Dr.M.Gopala Krishna, Asst. Professor, Department of Education, Adikavi Nannaya University, Rajamahendravaram, he spoke on teaching, teacher quality and goals, values in the teaching profession. In his presentation he conveyed various methods of teaching.

The entire programme was organized by the faculty members with the support of Dr.P.ChiranjeeviniKumari, Secretary and correspondent, Ideal College of Arts & Sciences, Kakinada.